Dear Arthur and Rutilia,

I do want to let you know how much I enjoyed the reception at your lovely home last Thursday. It is not often that a speaker has an opportunity to meet with a fair segment of his audience in relaxed conditions such as I did at your home. It was truly a nice experience. So often you simply leave town and have little feeling for the audience or their reception of your talk.

Beyond that, it was just fun to meet you and all of your guests. My wife joins me in regretting that she could not come down and that we could not stay and spend some time in Palm Beach. Perhaps another time.

Again, with many thanks.

Yours,

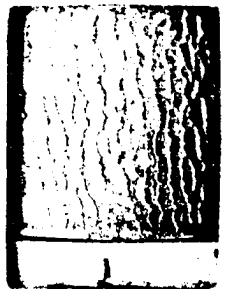

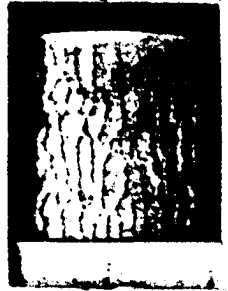

STANSFIELD TURNER
